SCH joins eleven nonprofits that were competitively selected in two cities-Chicago and Baltimore-to participate in the initial phase of Racial Wealth Divide Initiative.

As one of five high impact nonprofits of color in Chicago, Spanish Coalition for Housing is a strategic partner in the Racial Wealth Divide Initiative (RWDI) launched by Corporation for Enterprise Development (CFED), a D.C. based national nonprofit working to strengthen the ability of programs to proactively address racial wealth inequality and deepen analysis of asset poverty challenges impacting communities of color across the United States.
