When the Right Path Goes Wrong: A Client Success Story

The path to success is taught to most from a young age - Getting an education, finding a good job, buying a home, and having a family are all said to be the steps to equal a happy and stable life. Because of this idea, people aren't typically prepared for what happens when the right path goes wrong. This is the story of Contessa Green, an educated single mother of two, who found herself on the brink of foreclosure and about to lose everything she had.

SCH joins eleven nonprofits that were competitively selected in two cities-Chicago and Baltimore-to participate in the initial phase of Racial Wealth Divide Initiative.

As one of five high impact nonprofits of color in Chicago, Spanish Coalition for Housing is a strategic partner in the Racial Wealth Divide Initiative (RWDI) launched by Corporation for Enterprise Development (CFED), a D.C. based national nonprofit working to strengthen the ability of programs to proactively address racial wealth inequality and deepen analysis of asset poverty challenges impacting communities of color across the United States.

SCH has many workshops every week at each of our three office locations. Please view the calendar by clicking the button below to see upcoming classes.
